The Scar Saloon

poetry by Sholeh Wolpé

Praise for The Scar Saloon

In a world where cultures and religions are recklessly facing off, Sholeh Wolpé writes careful poems that cast a light on some of what we all hold in common.

—Billy Collins

Sholeh Wolpé's poems are political, satirical, and unflinching in the face of war, tyranny and loss. Talismanic and alchemical, they attempt to transmute experience into the magic of the imagined. But they also dare to be tender and funny lyrical moments. This book is remarkable and unexpected.

—Chris Abani

The Scar Saloon is a humane and compassionate book in which horror is balanced by love, pain by pleasure, denial by sensuality, seriousness with humor. Many of the poems are set in the Middle East, but Sholeh Wolpé is clearly a poet of the world.

—Charles Harper Webb

About the Author:

Sholeh Wolpé was born in Persia but spent most of her teen years in the Caribbean and Europe, ending up in the U.S. to pursue higher education. She attended George Washington University in Washington DC where she studied Radio-TV-Film. She then obtained an MA in the same field from Northwestern University and later, an MHS in Public Health from Johns Hopkins University. In 1984 she moved to California where she produced documentaries for the health field. She later founded her medical business company ZyQuest, which she still owns and operates. She has served on many boards of directors including the Redlands Bowl, Bonnes Meres, Tebot Bach and The Performance Loft. She is an award winning poet and translator who has widely traveled through Europe, the Middle East and Asia, and speaks several languages. She is the director and host of Poetry at the Loft, a successful poetry venue in Redlands, Ca. She divides her time between Redlands and Newport Beach, California.
